

Policy Statement on Equitable and Fair Remuneration for Artists

Policy Statement on Equitable and Fair Remuneration for Artists

This Policy Statement on Equitable and Fair Remuneration for Artists aligns with the Arts Council of Ireland's broader policy. The Museum works with artists on a contractual basis when commissioning special artwork projects and for certain temporary exhibitions programmes. Artists contracted to work will receive fair and equitable payment.

Key Points of Policy Statement

- Commitment to Fair Pay: FFBMM is committed to ensuring fair and equitable remuneration for professional artists.
- Living and Working Conditions: The policy aims to improve artists' living and working conditions, particularly those engaged in museum-related work.
- Best Practice Standards: The museum seeks to implement best practices in paying artists and art workers who contribute to its programming.
